St. Matthew's Publishing Corporation is a pioneer in the educational publishing industry for preschool and elementary school books in the Philippines. Our team joins the talents of distinguished academicians who create effective content for our materials and young-blood who strive to innovate and offer fresh perspectives on the delivery of education.

For more than 35 years, St. Matthew's Publishing Corporation has served more than 10,000 educational institutions nationwide as a true partner of educators and parents in nurturing young minds.

St. Matthew's Publishing Corporation manages three publishing imprints. It publishes K-12-aligned books for preschool and elementary school students under The K-12 Way imprint; educational books with special topics through Tala Books, and children's books under Kahel Press.

Kahel Press combines the passion of red and the happiness of yellow. It offers stories with fresh perspectives on time-tested values, relevant issues, and useful skills for children in today's world. It is the children's book imprint of St. Matthew's Publishing Corporation.

Aside from story books, the imprint also carries Handy Books—handy guide books for kids that come in easy-to-carry sizes so kids can bring them anytime and anywhere as they explore their new hobbies.

The imprint also publishes the Bayani Biographies series, biographies for young readers ages 8 and above written by historians and researchers. Through engaging narratives that look into the lives of our heroes, the series aims to let readers see that the youth of today are no different from the heroes that they are reading about.
